FEATURE CAR
1968 Pontiac Firebird
Marcia Golla

Hi, My name is Marcia Golla. I joined the Waukesha Old Car Club recently with my 1968 Pontiac Firebird. I had a friend with a bird in high school. It was a fun car to drive around in. My first car that I owned was a 1985 Pontiac Grand Prix. I have always been partial to Pontiacs.

When my husband turned 50, I gave him a 1969 Dodge Charger. It was in rough shape but it was a solid frame. I teased him for a long time that he had to put Pink Pinstripes on the Charger because I gave him the car, but that was not going to happen. I did get a little pink heart on my side of the car though.

When I started to get close to my 50th Birthday, I told him that I wanted a 1968 Firebird for my 50th Birthday. He hemmed and hawed about being able to get the car. Even the day of my birthday party he had my girlfriends tell me he was going to put pink streamers and balloons on the Charger since he couldn't find the Firebird.

We were having fun at the party and then he had the DJ play our wedding song. He kept my back turned to the parking lot and then spun me around to see my 1968 Firebird in Pink. It is definitely the biggest surprise of my life. It is stock 2 door hardtop with a 350 engine and Edlebrock 2 stage carburetor. I call her Dilly but everyone else calls her pinky. She is a great car and happy to have her. Stop by and say hi when you see me at the car shows.
